

Privacy Policy

Collection of Information:

To use this website, you must first complete the registration form and create a username and password. During registration you are required to give contact information (such as name and email address). We use this information to contact you about the services on our site in which you have expressed interest. This information is collected so that we can ship products to you and maintain a record of your orders for customer service purposes.

If you purchase products from us, we request that you provide certain personally identifiable information from you. You must provide contact information (such as name, email, and address) and financial information (such as credit card number and expiration date). We use this information for billing purposes and to fill your orders. If we have trouble processing an order, we will use this information to contact you.

Surveys and promotions:

From time-to-time we may provide you the opportunity to participate in contests, promotions or surveys on our site. Your email address may be used to communicate current sales and promotions unless you opt-out during the checkout or account registration processes. If you participate, we will request certain personally identifiable information from you.

Participation in these surveys or contests is completely voluntary and you therefore have a choice whether to disclose this information. The requested information typically includes contact information (such as name and shipping address), and demographic information (such as zip code). We may use a third-party service provider to conduct these surveys or contests; that company will be prohibited from using our users' personally identifiable information for any other purpose.

Information sharing disclosure:

We may, from time to time, share aggregated demographic information about our user base with our partners and advertisers. This information does not identify individual users. We do not link aggregate user data with personally identifiable information.

We do not share personally identifiable information except as specifically mentioned elsewhere in this statement.

For example, we use an outside credit card processing company to bill you for the products purchased on this website. This credit card processor does not share or use personally identifiable information for any other purposes.

We reserve the right to disclose your personally identifiable information as required by law, when we believe that disclosure is necessary to protect our rights or to comply with a judicial proceeding, court order, or legal process served on our company.

Information gathering:

As is true of most websites, we gather certain information automatically and store it in log files. This information includes internet protocol (IP) addresses, browser type, internet service provider (ISP), referring/exit pages, operating system, date/time stamp, and clickstream data.

We use this information, which does not identify individual users, to analyze trends, to administer the site, to track users' movements around the site and to gather demographic information about our user base. We do not link this automatically collected data to personally identifiable information.

Cookies:

A cookie is a small text file that is stored on a user's computer for record-keeping purposes. We use cookies on this site, which are indirectly linked to the personally identifiable information you submit while on our site.

Specifically, we use cookies for session security purposes. A token identifier is stored in the cookie when a user logs into the website, and then on each page that same user uses during that session. The token is compared to a session log created in our database to ensure that our server is still communicating with the same client. While the cookies themselves don't contain any personal information, it does contain a code that is used as a unique identifier of a client during a particular login.

We use session ID cookies and persistent cookies. A session ID cookie expires when you close your browser. A persistent cookie remains on your hard drive for an extended period. You can remove persistent cookies by following directions provided in your Internet browser's "help" file. If you reject cookies, you will not be able to use our website.
